This was no regular day at Wellesley High School. This was a day for the seniors to be different, crazy, and whatever they wanted. This day was Halloween, and class of 1995 celebrated it well. They paraded all over the school in every sort of weird costume imaginable. Even the Flintstones from Bedrock decided to come. The parade was a big hit for all who participated.
The Freshmen strut their stuff.

You go, Jazz Band

Preparing for Mrs. Goddard's Hamlet cheer

Awesome season volleyball! (Beth Avery, Nell Hurley)

The Frosh show some spirit.

Ben Bergeron survives the gauntlet!
This day sent forth a sense of unity, spirit and pride for the students at Wellesley High School. The fall sports teams participated along with contributions from the Jazz Band and Mrs. Goddard's Hamlet cheer. Everyone left WHS with a great feeling of school spirit.

GO RAIDERS!

Captains Jon Bloom and Carly Regnier wait for their turn to speak.
The drama society's performance of The Inspector Hound, was funny, interesting, and quite profound. The performers on stage made WHS proud, while entertaining and amusing a very large crowd. Stars, Madeline McDonnell and Alee Miller, made sure the play was a dramatic thriller. Duo Jay Houston and Aaron Coles did a fabulous job in their respective roles. Mark Cotton and Shane Bittenbender displayed expertise as they brought the audience to their knees. While Meesha Oterbridge, another Senior, brought cries from the audience with her outrageous demeanor, Mr. Megan, the director, made sure the play went on. Congratulations to the cast, your performance was magnificent.

Welcome!

WELLESLEY COTILLION

My name is Krystal Locke and this is my date . . .

Let's party!

I love dances!

Don't fall Kathryn!

Strike a pose girls!
We're here!

Want some punch?

Round and round we go!

A Wellesley tradition continued in 1994. Juniors and seniors gathered at the Wellesley College Alumni Hall and danced the night away. The limousines lined up outside to let the elegant students inside to party 'till they drop. As usual, the decorations and music set the mood and the food kept people munching. It was a spectacular success.

Aren't they a cute couple?

Our Administration (Mr. Levin; Mrs. Hayes; Mrs. Novogrovski)

ADMINISTRATION

Mr. Cox, a fleeting respite for alleviation.

Ms. Simon, at work as usual.

The ever-present Mrs. Hayes supervised another exciting year as our principal at WHS. Assistant Principal, Mrs. Novogrovski, helped administer the student body along with our new Assistant Principal, Mr. Levin (Go Raiders!). He adjusted to the new position with great success by gaining respect from the students in all classes.

Other new additions to the staff include Joe Amendola and Marlene Simon who share the always stressful job of parking lot attendant. Mr. Amendola with his one liners helped to start the day off on a good note, while Ms. Simon always provided a friendly face to talk to on the way home from school. Mr. Cox, in his third year at Wellesley High School, has become a close friend of the students and his efforts along with the rest of Administration have helped to make the student body feel at home.

What's so funny Mr. Amendola?

Mrs. Hayes, our principal.
It would be hard to imagine what Wellesley High School would be like without our very devoted, trusting guidance counselors, Mr. Whelahan, Mr. Hugart, Mrs. Gulrich, Mr. Touhey, Ms. O’Byrne, and our hardworking secretaries, Ms. Sannicandro, Mrs. Adzigian, and Mrs. Mitchell. The department was always available to meet the needs of all the students at W.H.S. Our nurse, Mrs. MacLean, did a wonderful job meeting all our health concerns. Thank You W.H.S. Guidance Department!

GUIDANCE

Mrs. Adzigian, Rosanne, and Mrs. Mitchell, working hard.

Schedule changes can be fun! (Mr. Touhey and Laura Cass)

Mr. Touhey, Mr. Hughart, Mr. Whelahan, Ms. O’Byrne, and Mrs. Gulrich.
ENGLISH

The English Department, under the direction of Brooks Goddard, taught us how to spell. Just kidding! All English teachers implemented a full curriculum that included a wide variety of topics ranging from vocabulary to mythology and from Hemingway way projects to such books as Huck Finn and Malcolm X. By providing all the students with such a diverse selection of different works and projects, the teachers continually introduced new ways of approaching English that were both interesting and important. All students improved their creativity, insight, mechanics of writing, vocabulary, and overall knowledge of English. From the Freshman I-Search, to the famous Sophomore Thesis, to the Junior Secondary Source Paper, to the Senior Paper, everyone accomplished something they could be proud of. There was also the very helpful Writing Lab in the library. It is the bestest English Department around.
Under the direction of Dr. Rumsey, within the Math department this year there were many changes. Among these changes was a new addition to the faculty, Ms. Healy, who teaches a variety of the Math courses. The students have enjoyed having her around. The department was engaged in a curriculum review that would involve using the computers more, revised content, as well as relating Math to the real world. The Math department did a great job challenging the students of Wellesley High School in the world of Math.

MATH

Mr. Tripp enthralled in the world of math.

Smile Mr. Craigsinsky.

The Social Studies Department, under the leadership of Mr. Whitbeck, continued to refine the core curriculum by having teachers of the same courses work together on the expectations for students in each level. The other development this year regards the EPIIC Program at Tufts University. This program allows students to study the countries of China and Japan in the year 2020. Because of the great response to the program last year, we sent two groups of ten students this year. The Social Studies Department continued to offer challenging programs for the students of Wellesley High School.
Another exciting year for the Science Department under the direction of Dr. Rumsey! There was an entire new Biology Curriculum for juniors. There were three new courses: Bio 31 AP, Bio 32, and Bio + environment. We had new expanded labs, Bio Tech., and hands on activities. There was also much more computer use, laser discs, and projects. This was the third year of the Earth Science course, and many other courses were refined. The Science Olympiad team was led by Mr. Seiger, and they competed once a month. There was another annual Science Fair this year held in the beginning of March. Science is alive and well at W.H.S.

Mr. Seiger’s in a happy mood. (Kerry Richmond, Sara Duggan, Christie Costello)

Mr. Boston helps some students. (Julie Geer, Lindsay Osieski)

Mr. Boston, Mr. Bowman, Dr. Yarosh, Mr. Coulombe, Dr. Rumsey, Mr. Seiger, Mrs. Hallowell, Mr. Scafati, Mrs. Crosson
Under the direction of Mr. Haggerty, the Foreign Language teachers make language learning a fun experience for the students at WHS. A new language lab that the students benefit from for listening and speaking was recently installed. The language department keeps growing with new teachers. Among the new teachers include: Dr. Ariza and Ms. Sevenoff who both teach Spanish. There are many trips offered for the different languages; a French exchange in February, and trips to Costa Rica and Germany in the summer. Many students choose to participate in this exciting experience.
The Business Administration and Technology Department was very successful this year with their new department head Mr. Plati. Mrs. Lord and the Business Administration students worked with their consultants David Crawford and Tom Rosenbloom. Each Business Administration class operated their own student company. The Business Department introduced the new popular course, Creative Problem Solving. Mrs. Dixon led an interdisciplinary course Desktop Publishing. The Mac Lab survived another year thanks to the smiling face of Ms. Goodman. Mrs. Lord and Ms. Apuzzo worked very hard with the yearbook students to create a memorable year for everyone. The Accounting Program taught by Ms. Apuzzo was expanded to a full year due to student interest. Again this year, Ms. Berthiaume brought many new ideas to the computer classes.
SPECIAL SERVICES

Under the direction of Dr. Gotthelf, the Special Services Department at Wellesley High School is a source of support for students. Skills coordination class, counseling for individuals or groups, consultation with teachers, specialists or parents, speech and language therapy, an alternative education program, adaptive physical education, a language program, as well as other services which aid students and enables them to have a better understanding are provided by the skilled teachers of special services. With the help of Ms. Galgani, the Special Services Department meets the needs of the students of W.H.S.
Under the direction of Mr. Plati, the designation of the library as a quiet study area is encouraged by head librarian Mrs. Wood, along with the help of Ms. Chaet, Mrs. Keefe, Ms. Berthiaume, Mrs. Jensen and Mrs. Fontinha, who is new this year to Wellesley High. Together, the team is working to computerize the library with an electronic catalog; and Mrs. Wood is working to put the library online. In addition, a new paperback collection of current popular fiction has been started. The library staff has been working hard to help create the best environment possible for the students.

Katie Griffin completes an assignment.

Aisha is up to something!

Peter Surette is deep in thought.

Ssshh! It's the library! (Ms. Chaet)

The library staff: Ms. Berthiaume, Mrs. Keefe, Mrs. Wood, and Mrs. Fontinha.
Dr. Nicolucci, Director of Performing Arts, gives a warm welcome.

Ms. Epps, the talented new choreographer, along with Mr. Megan and Mrs. Wightman, led the cast to great success once again. Performances by the Brooks Brothers, Song Sisters, Concert Choir, and the Rice Street Singers were commendable this year due to the guidance of Mrs. Wightman. Mr. Platt led the multi-talented band. The orchestra had a great year as well. Conducted by Mrs. Wood, WHS benefited from these artistic performances.

Mr. Megan has an inspiration.

Mrs. Wightman keeping everyone in tempo.

Ms. Wood smiles with approval.

Mr. Platt gets the crowd involved.
This year the Wellesley art department was very lucky to have an artist in residence, Sara Rubington. She specializes in monotypes and is herself a long time Wellesley resident. Also this year we had a parent volunteer, Mrs. Goodman, who worked with computers in the studio. Computer art was one of the new focuses for the art department. Mr. Callahan, our drawing/painting teacher, helped out with the jewelry program again when there was interest shown by the students. Mr. Rutlege, the photo and ceramics teacher, worked hard all summer to start a new system of glazing for his ceramic students so that they would be more apt to experiment with the different combinations of color. This was a very productive year for the art department under the direction of Mr. Willemann.
Industrial Technology continued to be one of the students’ favorite departments by letting them escape from the daily academic pressures to forge new grounds in different fields of interest. Led by Mr. McAleer and Mr. Varley, this department allowed students to participate and learn about activities ranging from woodworking, to drafting, to auto shop. The new addition to the course offerings this year included a robotics course which opened up another field for students to investigate and proved to be a success. The Industrial Technology Department continued to open up a whole new world of opportunities to WHS students.
The Home Economics Department had a busy agenda this year, with 50% or more of the student body enrolled in one of the many Home Economics courses. The Home Economic Department offered courses in Child Development, Teaching Young Children, Child Study Lab, Joy of Cooking, International Foods, Culinary Arts, Fitness for Life, and Sewing. The Home Economics Department consists of Mrs. Doiron, Mrs. St. Germain, Mrs. Gorman, and Department Head, Mrs. Novogrovski.
PHYSICAL EDUCATION

Once again the Physical Education Department has completed another year of keeping W.H.S. physically fit. Under the direction of Mr. McDermott, Mr. Loiter, Mrs. Poitras, Mr. Mastro, and Ms. Chiodo had a great year and look forward to seeing the underclassmen next year in gym. The Seniors would like to thank the teachers for preparing them to embark on a physically fit life.
As Director of Athletics, Mr. Tripp completes another outstanding year of keeping everything running smoothly. With the help of his secretary, Mary Ann MacDonald, Wellesley has been prepared for all their athletic events. Patty, The Medicine Woman, pulls through another great year keeping everyone up and running strong.
What is that mystery meal?

Service with a smile!

Our support staff this year continued to make our hallways and cafeteria more enjoyable. Their help made the Wellesley High School environment more like a home to us with good lunches and a clean building. WHS would not be the same without them.

Stick em up!

Peanut butter and jelly again?
What would we ever do without the help of our highly organized office staff. Everyday they are bombarded with phone calls, cut slips, late students and tons of questions, and somehow they keep the school running smoothly. The office staff includes Mrs. Donahue, Mrs. Leverone, Mrs. Demetrius, Mrs. Donohue, and Mrs. Ferretti. Whenever we needed to see Mrs. Hayes we were greeted by the very helpful Mrs. Dorsey.

Through a day at Wellesley High School, you would see a variety of people dressed anywhere from a pseudo hippy type style to the preppy “J Crew” type of outfit. At lunch, anything from a healthy bagel to Mark’s buffalo wings was consumed. As people would gather to leave Wellesley High School parking lot, you would hear the variety of music from Top 40 to Phish, flowing from the cars. These pictures are some of the typical food places, hangout places and clothes of the class of 95. As an example, Jason and Carl represent the typical white hat, fleece jacket and a typical weekend night . . .
UNDERCLASS OFFICERS

The Junior class officers. Junior class officers Maria Celli, President, Pete Joseph, Vice President, Lucie LeBlois, Secretary, and Marisa Baker, Treasurer successfully raised money for their class this year. Under the guidance of Mr. Loiter, the group came up with creative ideas such as an auction held in March, giving the class enough money to support a great senior year.

The Sophomore class officers. The Sophomore class officers, including President Andrea Chont, Secretary Azra Nanji, Treasurer Aneesh Venkataramen, and Vice President Jonathon Tartes (not pictured), were led by class advisor, Ms. Chaet. With a successful dance and match making game for Valentines Day, the sophomores added plenty of money to their treasury.

FALL SPORTS
THE 1994 cheerleading squad once again cheered the football team on to another successful season. This year’s team was coached by Mrs. Doiron and Ms. Chaet. Captains Alexandra Rich and Waisha Dillard helped to lead the peppy squad. The team worked hard to motivate the Wellesley fans and to cheer on the Raiders. The girls are looking forward to cheer next year’s football team to victory.

Go Raiders go Raiders go!
The 1995 Women's Field Hockey Team had a great season with a very impressive finish. With having lots of injuries, and a very young team, the Raiders qualified for the tournament for the first time in a while. Coached by Ms. Molonea, the team's skills improved over the course of the season and leaves the team prepared for success next season.

After starting out a disappointing 0-3, the Varsity Women's Soccer Team improved to an 11-5-2 finish, tying for first place in the Herget division. They were coached by Dick Heller, with assistance from Alicia Carillo. A small team this year, the Raiders were a tightly knit group of talented players who learned to work well together over the course of the season. One of their greatest victories was an end of the season 1-0 defeat of longtime-rival Needham. Seeded eighth in the post-season tourney, the Raiders were defeated by the Duxbury Dragons 2-0 in the quarterfinals of the South Sectionals. (Duxbury then went on to capture the Division Two State Title.) In addition, the JV Raiders had another successful season. Coached by Nancy Foot, they finished 14-3. We wish both teams continued success in the '95 season. Good luck, girls!

The 1994 Men's Varsity Soccer Team, coached by Mr. Wright, had a good season this year. With the unexpected record of 10-2-4, senior captains, Jim Reese and Jon Bloom did an excellent job leading their team to a winning record. Next year should be another good year. Good luck to All WHS Soccer Players. Congratulations on a great season.

The Wellesley High School Swim Team, led by captains Janine Capuoto, Jessie Graham, and Sarah Devaney, had lots of spirit as they fought hard during this rebuilding year. With many new freshmen, the Raider Team was young, but extremely dedicated. Coaches, Bill Sullivan and Katerina Little-Gill, helped all the Raiders to improve. Even though this was a rebuilding year, there was definitely not a lack of team spirit as you could always hear the Raiders cheering each other on. The Diving Team was also successful this year and was led by senior captain Sarah Devaney.
The 1994-95 Wellesley High School Women's Volleyball Team had an incredibly achieved season. Led by captains Nell Hurley and Beth Avery, the team finished with a great record. With tons of hard work at practice and in their games, the team made their season even more impressive by making it all the way to the semi-finals in the state tournament. They really packed in the fans this year with their enthusiasm and consistent team work. They will miss the senior players, but next year looks to be a promising season. Congratulations!
Rob and Tim share a tender moment.

The Wellesley High School Golf Team, under Coach Hamilton, finished the season with a somewhat disappointing 3 wins. Highlights of the season, however, do include a dramatic win over rival Needham and the arrival of new golf hats. Led by captains Chris James and Brad Godfrey, the Raiders shot with spirit and confidence. Junior, John Nagle, putting every match, helped the squad score along with graduating Seniors, Robb Moore and Yoshi Goto. Other members of the squad, including, Tim Fritts, hope to individually improve their scores next year by practicing their swings this summer. With a strong Senior core, the Raiders hope next season will be their year to shine.

John perfects his follow through.

Tim and Matt practice their dance steps.
Cross Country had a great season with a record of 4-5-1. The team was coached by Mr. Bowman. The captains Evan Hume and Chris Ellis led their team in 4 victories. Congratulations to the Cross Country Team on a competitive season with many individual improvements accomplished. Keep Running!
The 1994 Raider Football Team produced some of the most exciting games in recent memory. Competing in an unusually challenging and talented Bay State Conference, the team posted a record of 7-3. After two years of good fortune, the team fell upon some hard times. Plagued by injury and other hardships, the Raiders earned each victory by means of hard work. Although the team did not live up to some expectations, each player proved that, win or lose, he was committed to the tradition of Raider Pride. The Seniors leave with a four year varsity record of 38-4, and a 16 game home winning streak. Thank you to Coach Levin and all of the Assistant Coaches.

WINTER SPORTS
MEN’S HOCKEY

Mike with the slap shot.

An intense raider huddle.

I want to score!!

The Hockey team this year improved their record drastically. Senior captains, Chris Ellis, Scott Hoffman and Jay Mullowney led the team towards more wins than in previous years. Mike Mellor, a new senior edition to the hockey team was one of the team’s top scorers. The team was coached by Deke Longuille. Congratulations to this year’s team for their many successes.
If this year's basketball season proved anything, it's that, hey, winning isn't everything! Although the team was a disappointing 4-16, at times they displayed the fire and flash of an exciting and talented group of players. Their many close finishes promised friends and fans a performance bristling with intensity and suspense. Although they did not display much success in the win column, the team did accomplish a great deal towards establishing a strong basketball program with rookie coach Mike Reidy and co-captains Brendan Hayes and Jon Powers. The players would like to thank all the fans for their unprecedented support at the games, and team manager Josh Murphy-Katz for his dedication and support during the season.
The Wellesley High School Basketball team had a very successful season. The Raiders were coached by Don Fay and the team’s captains were Nell Hurley and Kim Flynn. With only three seniors on this year’s squad, the Raiders were quite young. Despite the odds, the talented team pulled together to earn a winning season. The Raiders defeated such teams as Milton and Fontbonne. They look forward to a promising season next year.

Faster than a speeding bullet

The Indoor Track team had another great season. The team was enthusiastic about doing their best. The girl’s relay broke the school record this year. Claudia Solari and Nate Jutras broke school records and personal best records. Coach Neviaskas lead the team to states once again. Congratulations on a great season.
Coached by Dave Paltrineri, this year the wrestling team showed great improvement from the last season through the efforts of many of the more experienced wrestlers as well as several newcomers. The wrestling team's dual meet record was 8-6 due to the leadership provided by captains Jay Harris, Yanni Diamond, Dean Diamond, Kevin Rideout and Pierce Davis. This year, among those who qualified for the state tournament were, four captains Yanni Diamond, Dean Diamond, Pierce Davis, Jay Harris and freshman Andrew MacFadyen.
The Gymnastics Team, coached by John Redmon and Daniel DeCarlo, was plagued by injury and illness during the season. Losing, at different times, Dierdre Kelley, Jen Morse-Salvati, and Julia Jankot to illnesses as well as Nicole Heacock and senior co-captain Susie Rudders to injuries made it virtually impossible for them to defend their BSL Championship Title. Fortunately, the team stuck together through all of the adversity and continually improved throughout the season by posting many personal bests. The team looks forward to further improvement next year to once again vie for the BSL Championship.
This year the Ski Team completed a successful season. The team was led by coach Poitras and captains senior Jordana Mirel, Cross Country, and junior Tim Crawford, Alpine. Due to a persistent lack of snow, the team found the slopes bare, but they continued the season with great success. Congratulations to both teams.
This year's winter cheerleading squad was led by coach, Kelley Hurley, previously a WHS graduate and captain. The group of talented cheerleaders were guided by Alex Rich and Waisha Dillard, this year's captains. There was a strong sense of unity and commitment. They worked hard and kept positive attitudes through victories and losses. The squad traveled to the Bay State League Competition on March 17. Due to an improved squad and new choreography the cheerleaders turned out a stunning performance. As a squad, the cheerleaders hope that people will catch on to their enthusiasm and join the team next year.
The Wellesley Swim team was dwindled in numbers last year but not in talent. The team was led by senior captain Toney (Bill Mulcarin) and Junior Captain Sol (Noah Horst). Struck by sickness and injury the small team of 13 got to the low of 8 swimmers. Guillermo will be a big loss to the team because of his significant drop in time in the 100 back stroke. Coaches Richard Case and Katrina Little Gill helped the team fulfill a great season and record. Although the swim team is losing two great swimmers they hope to make up for them with hard work and the upcoming freshmen next year. The two divers, Jeff Coney and Bruce Kocher, both had great seasons and made it to sectionals.
GO RAIDERS!
A kind of group association in which, through being ourselves, we may get to something greater than ourselves. — Milton J. Rosenberg
The Math Team met once a week with their leader Mr. Edson and practiced all sorts of Math problems. Once a month they would go to different high schools for competition. Basically the competition entails individual problem solving, occasionally group competition is involved. This year's captain was Carmen Ho. The Math Team was a great group of hard workers. Good job, Math Team!
This year's successful ACADEC Team was led by co-captains, Rebecca Bargoot and Jen Murphy. From the many practices, coached by Mrs. McCoy, the team was well prepared for the ACADEC meets. This '94-'95 team placed third in the state! Congratulations! Dan Chu should be recognized for his outstanding performance this year. Among winning various metals, he finished second overall in the scholastic division. Great year, team! Thanks for all your help Mrs. McCoy and Ms. Kalotkin.
In February, the French Exchange spent three weeks experiencing the French culture. They stayed with different families in three different suburbs outside of Paris. They went to school with the French students and learned more about the French people firsthand. In Paris, they visited many Chateau's and also got a few hours in for a little shopping. It was a great experience that they will always remember.
This year they had a great group for the team and it was successfully led by captain Steve Jung. The team, in practice, did various scientific activities. After many hours of practice, they would compete in group competitions against other schools. Even if they were not always number one, they were always sure to have a good time in their practices and competitions. Good Job! Thank you to our Advisor, Mr. Seiger!
It has been another great year for the Wellesley High Paper. Everything went smoothly with their new advisor, Mrs. Goodman. This year's editors were Hilary Ryder and Leslie MacIntosh who performed the job extremely well. There were many new members this year which helped to make it a success. With the many ideas from the students the Bradford was once again great reading material.
PHOTOGRAPHY CLUB

The more the merrier in the Photo Club.

Under the supervision of Mr. Rutledge the Photography Club completed another great year. They were able to go on many trips such as to Boston for night photography, to the Omni Theater during Christmas time, and the Boston Globe Plant. The four responsible officers included President Francis Hall, Vice President Richard Hull, Secretary Sarah Dinwoody, and Treasurer Leslie Schoenfeld. They did a great job keeping everything organized and making the 1994-95 year a great one.

This year's yearbook staff, under the direction of Mrs. Lord and Ms. Apuzzo worked really hard to meet never-ending deadlines. Everything was usually hectic; but we still managed to finish things on time. Led by senior editors Julie Watson, Wiley Wakeman, and Katie McClaren, yearbookites were able to produce this absolutely unbelievable, amazing, incredible, perfect yearbook. While Mrs. Lord led the actual process of putting together the yearbook, and Ms. Apuzzo headed the production and finance of it, many devoted members came every morning to help out.

Providing service to Wellesley and beyond, the WHS Key Club has maintained its strong presence in the community. Fifty or more students of all grades work hard by donating their time and effort into a variety of activities. Many members are helping out at the Teen Center on the weekends. Their work was so great that they were forced to put a cap on the number of students that could volunteer. All students give their undying thanks to Mrs. Rita Allen, the advisor.

Led by Mrs. Frick, the Kaleidoscope team publishes its work tri-annually. The editor-in-chief, Liana Tuller, along with the team worked to comprise the Kaleidoscope of many different samples of student creativity. It includes short stories, poems, and pictures. We thank all the members of the Kaleidoscope for sharing their talents with us, and we thank Mrs. Frick for organizing this literary success.

Locusts

My dear friend,
I see that your brain is infested
With locusts. So many locusts
That you cannot see a single
Thing, so you continue
To act oblivious.
How can you be so oblivious
To something so oblivious?
Oh well, I suppose I will just wait
Until the air is cleared;
If the swarm should ever dissipate,
I shall then attempt to communicate with you.

This year’s Student Congress was led by President — Mike Tofias, Vice President — Alex Quigley, Treasurer — Anseesh Venkataraman, and Advisor — Ms. Lynn. Currently, the group has been discussing issues such as a lounge and a plan for a new schedule for WHS. They meet every week and work hard, listening to the students opinions to get things accomplished for our school. Great Job!
This was the second year of the successful decision making body, School Council. The moderators of the group were Mr. Whitbeck and Mike Tofias. The group made up of faculty, students, community members, and parents was able to vote on issues brought to the council. They used "Roberts Rules" to conduct the meetings. In 1994-1995 they discussed issues such as changing the current schedule, the number of levels offered in various subjects, and the idea of an upperclass lounge. The group worked very hard to meet the needs of WHS.
The National Honor Society under the direction of Mr. Brown has continued its tradition of community service. This year’s president Mike Caulderwood, with other officers, Kate Miller, Michele Hallor, and Courtney Michael, have led members in raising money for the NHS scholarship program. The National Honor Society members dedicated a Saturday morning and afternoon to washing cars to raise money for this cause. Some of the other activities NHS members have been participating in are working at the food bank, providing care for the children of homeless families on Wednesday afternoons, and spending the day in Boston for the City Year program. The National Honor Society is hoping for an extremely successful year in helping the community as well as raising money for the NHS scholarship.
EARTH CLUB

Our happy president, Janine Caputo.

Ciel Wharton in action.

A fellow Earth Clubber (Liz Lyman).

With the guidance of Mr. Choney, the members of Earth Club worked hard this year to raise money for numerous charities. President Janine Caputo, Vice President Ciel Wharton and Secretary Michelle Demjen organized a bake sale at the Dump Flea Market and sold tee-shirts during their free periods. The members of Earth Club also ran the recycling centers at the high school.

The Earth Club in all their glory.
This year the Performing Arts Department continued its goal to involve as many students as possible in their programs. The Performing Arts Department does much to add enjoyment and entertainment to the entire WHS Community. We thank them for their many outstanding performances throughout the year.
This year SADD has been very busy. The SADD Club has organized multiple fund-raisers such as selling safety kits and highway emergency kits. Later in the year SADD organized a paper chain signed by each student promising not to drive drunk or enter a car with anyone who has been drinking. The big event for SADD was the Drug and Awareness Week. They organized speakers and arranged all school assemblies. The message that SADD hopes to get across to every student by organizing the Drug and Awareness Week is that students will realize the many negative affects of drugs and alcohol.
The Conflict Resolution Team this year consisted of seventeen dedicated students working hard to help the student body. Meeting once a cycle, the group of mediators learned how to deal with conflicts among students under the guidance of Ms. Moorehead, Ms. Holzman, and Ms. Lobach. The group, though newly started, has been highly successful in solving problems between students without the help of the administration. Their hard work and commitment are greatly appreciated by the whole student body.
A.B.C. short for A Better Chance, is a program that brings talented girls from New York and gives them an opportunity to receive a better education. This year, six A.B.C. students attended Wellesley High School. They were seniors Krystal Locke and Meesha Outerbridge, junior Tiffany Lopez, and freshmen Naomi MillerFacey, Andrea Jones and Meccasia Zabriskie. They share a house in Wellesley along with two program coordinators. These girls contributed a great deal to Wellesley High School.
For the past twenty-five years Metco has been a part of Wellesley High School. For the last three years Mrs. Bowens has been the Metco Specialist with the new addition of Mrs. Johnson. This year the Metco program has presented a number of things to the town of Wellesley. During the month of December they've taught the Child Lab children about the holiday called Kwanza. Kwanza was celebrated by Metco freshmen through a Kwanza breakfast feast. During the month of March the Metco program at the high school put on a presentation at Babson College. The Metco students contribute much to WHS and have benefited from this program.

The Latin Club had both a successful and busy year. They planned many activities with the help of advisor, Mr. Esposito. The activities included a trip to Brown University to sing Latin Christmas carols and organizing floor hockey for all of the foreign language students. The club also enjoyed going out to dinner on many occasions. Each activity was thoughtfully planned by the enthusiastic members of the club. Mr. Esposito hopes to have another successful club next year.

I love the Latin Club.

Pete, show some enthusiasm!
The 1994-95 German Club has been very successful this year with the help of our advisor, Frau Stueart. Their president; Frances Hall, VP; Kim Flynn, Secretary; Lizzie Brady, and Treasurer; Anna Eriksson have done a great job making sure the club stays on the right track. Besides doing other activities this year they are raising money by selling Toblerones for the exchange program taking place in April and July. Good luck German Club, have fun in Germany!
We love Spanish! (Erin O'Reilly and Laura Marx)

Sir, let me tell you a story. (Mr. Brown)

Liz and Sarah got changed for Spanish Club. (Liz Axelrod and Sarah Mollo)

Yes, it's time for Spanish Club! (Susie Rudders)

The Spanish Club, led by Ms. Sevenoff and officers Guillermo Savage and Lia Fletcher enjoyed participating in a series of activities related to Spanish and Latin American culture and Spanish-speaking peoples. Some of the Spanish Club activities included going out to Spanish and Mexican restaurants. Members of this club had a year to remember.

Four students participated in the American Field Service program this year. Jon Powers travelled to Australia and spent seven weeks in the city of Perth after which he spent ten days on a group environmental program. Liana Tuller spent the summer in northern Chile with two doctors and their two young daughters. Both Amy Stetson and Katie McLaren spent the summer in Costa Rica. Amy lived with a Costa Rican family and studied at the university in San Jose as part of a language program offered by AFS. Katie lived with a Costa Rican family as well and went to school with her 17 year old host sister. While each of their experiences was different, they all came home with extremely fond memories of their new homes and a desire to continue their world travels.

Looking forward to World Travels.
The Amigos program consists of volunteers who travel to Latin America and work for four to eight weeks in the field of public health with poor people. To pay for their expenses, the three volunteers from our school, Nate Donabed, Emily Muller and Alex Rich, participated in the annual spring fruit sale, where they had to raise $2,350 each. Each volunteer had a great trip to Latin America this summer and had many valuable experiences they will cherish for a lifetime. Thanks to our advisor Mr. Brown!
